The location within the magazine is placed by our Art Director based on space availability. Articles are moved around quite frequently as print deadline approaches. I spoke to Joshua and David already, the article that was placed on our website is what's going in the magazine.

We won't place both articles on the same page.

Joshua mentioned he was going to send you a PDF of where it currently is, although location in the magazine could potentially change as ads are inserted.

Hope that makes sense.

Ok

I'm not familiar with the layout if there's more than one. Do you place the articles on the same page or are they placed under a certain section?

Do you edit wording in both articles to fit if they go on the same page?

Thanks

I was referring to articles. Advertising would be through Joshua, and yes it appears they also paid for an ad as well. I was just letting you know there will be two, including yours.

Thanks!

Hi Justin

Are you speaking about the ad or an article?

Thanks

Good day – As today is our deadline, I'm reviewing the layout and editorial calendar for our next Valley Center Magazine.

I'm writing to inform you as a courtesy that we'll also be running another mobile groomer, along with yours, in the magazine. This has been previously scheduled, so I wanted to give you a heads up.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you!
